Process Going Forward

The priority lists from each city will be combined into a new management document to provide to their respective boards for discussion and approval.

Each member will reprioritize their projects as necessary before the next meeting

The FKTCC will meet again April 21 to finalize prioritizing the entire new list and approve a Resolution by vote of the appointed members.

Next Steps

Each member will take the master list back to its elected body

Each municipality governing body will discuss/vote to support via referendum and provide that support document to Richard Clark via Tamara Lamarche at BOCC District 4 office via email address: Lamarche-tamara@monroecounty-fl.gov

The FKTCC will formally vote after the support is garnered from the elected bodies at the April 21 meeting of the committee.

The BOCC will approve a Resolution of the 2025 Transportation Master Plan (priority list) for transmittal to FDOT of the 2025 updated priority list at their May 21, 2025 meeting.

7. Motion to adjourn
